Industrial Automation Team Lead

As an owner of the firm, Tim provides high-level tax, accounting and consulting services to business owners of domestic closely-held companies and foreign-owned subsidiaries. He is particularly attuned to the needs of system integrators, manufacturing and distribution industries; guiding many on their growth plans, expansion into Mexico and beyond. Tim has been an advisor since 2001, and collaborates with clients to help reduce their tax burden, make their global expansion seamless, and reduce the amount of time spent on their financial analysis and KPIs by utilizing the firm's internal and external network of experts.
